

Yakima Valley Credit Union wins Marketing Award

Yakima, WA (September 28, 2009) – Yakima Valley Credit Union in Yakima, Washington won the Media Relations category in its asset category at the Washington State Credit Union League’s annual Spectrum Awards Luncheon on September 17. The Spectrum Marketing Awards is a volunteer-driven awards program to honor excellence in credit union communications and marketing.

The Credit Union was recognized for its efforts put forth during the fraud scam that affected thousands of members and non-members of Yakima Valley Credit Union late in 2008.

About Yakima Valley Credit Union

Yakima Valley Credit Union was formed in 1939 as the Fireman’s Credit Union and has grown to over $264 million in assets. The Credit Union has continued to expand its reach into the community with a state charter that permits the opportunity to serve anyone who lives, works, worships, or goes to school in the state of Washington. Yakima Valley Credit Union serves its more than 31,300 members with five convenient branch locations. The Credit Union offers a full line of products and services to meet members’ needs.